

EnviroLeach Secures Long-Term PCB Supply Agreement

Vancouver, BC, Oct 6, 2020, EnviroLeach Technologies Inc. (“EnviroLeach”), (CSE: ETI) (OTCQB: EVLLF) (7N2: FSE) is pleased to announce it has signed a 100 tonne per month waste printed circuit board (or “PCB”) feedstock supply agreement with a European based supplier.

With over 25 years experience in the E-Waste sector, the supplier has an extensive network of recycler and aggregator relationships across European and Asian markets.

Duane Nelson, President and CEO comments, “I am very pleased we have secured our first long-term waste PCB supply agreement to provide feed for our EnviroCircuit E-Waste processing facility. I am confident this is the first of many such agreements to be signed over the coming months. The supply agreement is positive evidence that the E-Waste sector is recovering from the negative effects of COVID 19. The industry is starting to adopt our disruptive technology and recognize it as an environmentally friendly, cost-effective alternative to the conventional smelting of waste PCBs.”
